

PRISON MINISTRY OPTIONS

Ways Your Church Can Be Involved

Prison ministry has evolved. In 2018, any one of the following list “counts” as prison ministry for your church. Please partner with us to make sure that your church is doing at least one of these ministries on a sustainable basis!

✠ Thank You! – The Prison Ministries of Texas ✠

- Tradition in-prison ministry: chapel services
- Evangelism events
- Intercessory prayer for ministries and the incarcerated
- Weekly Bible study at a prison or at the local jail
- Support one or more prison ministries financially
- Church members who volunteer with local ministries as mentors, instructors, and disciplers
- Participate in community events (resource/job fairs)
- Develop a church-based reentry ministry
- Advocate for change by becoming a Second Chance church, by mobilizing support for justice that restores
- Host a Celebrate Recovery program
- Create a formal prison and reentry ministry by appointing a full-time associate pastor who is formerly incarcerated

www.prisonministriesoftexas.com